Scientists of the Month

GOAL: To expose students to a wide variety of scientific fields and scientists.

A Project Fulcrum Scientist and a scientist from a similar field are profiled in terms of where they grew up, their families and their interests (scientific and otherwise).

Students make a monthly journal entry discussing similarities and differences between the scientists. The lead teacher and scientist use the journal to assess student progress.